

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT

For Contributions to the Journal of

Research on Engineering Structures & Materials

Manuscript Entitled: _____

By signing this Agreement, the author(s), and in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the employer, jointly and severally represent and warrant that the Article is original with the author(s) and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Article has not been published elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein. If each author's signature does not appear [below], the signing author(s) represent that they sign this Agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all authors who have the legal right to transfer copyright and that this Agreement and authorization is made on behalf of the same. The signing author(s) (and, in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the signing employer(s)) also represent and warrant that they have the full power to enter into this Agreement and to make the grants contained herein. In violation of any above conditions signing author(s), and, in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the signing employers are assumed to accept the full responsibility.

Copyright to the [above-listed] unpublished and original article submitted by the [below] author(s), the abstract forming part thereof, and any subsequent errata (collectively, the "Article") is hereby transferred to the Journal of Research on Engineering Structures & Materials (RESM) for the full term thereof throughout the world, subject to the Author Rights (as hereinafter defined) and to acceptance of the Article for publication in the journal of RESM. This transfer of copyright includes all material to be published as part of the Article (in any medium), including but not limited to tables, figures, graphs, movies, other multimedia files, and all supplemental materials. RESM shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included. RESM can also assign its rights on the article to another third party.

The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the employer named [below], acknowledge(s) and agree(s) that the article will be published and made freely available to users under the terms of Creative Commons Attribution - NonCommercial 4.0 International Public License, as currently displayed at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/legalcode> (the "CC BY - NC"). The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the employer named [below], acknowledge(s) and agree(s) that the RESM is the exclusive "Licensor", as defined in the CC BY - NC, of the Article and that the RESM may make the Article freely available to all users under the terms of the CC BY - NC.

The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the employer named [below], shall have the following rights (the "Author Rights"):

Author Rights:

1. All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.

2. The right to use the RESM-prepared version of the Article without revision or modification, on the author(s)' web home page or employer's website.
3. The right to make copies of all or part of the Article, including the RESM-prepared version without revision or modification, for the author(s)' and/or the employer's use for educational or research purposes. If the RESM version or a part of the article is used, or the third party republishes in a publication or product charging a fee for use, written permission from RESM must be obtained.
4. The right to make, and hold copyright in, works derived from the Article, as long as all of the following conditions are met: (a) at least one author of the derived work is an author of the Article; (b) the derived work includes at least fifteen (15) percent of new material not covered by RESM's copyright in the Article; and (c) the derived work includes no more than fifty (50) percent of the text (including equations) of the Article. If these conditions are met, copyright in the derived work rests with the authors of that work, and RESM (and its successors and assigns) will make no claim on that copyright. If these conditions are not met, explicit RESM permission must be obtained. Nothing in this Section shall prevent RESM (and its successors and assigns) from exercising its rights in the Article.

All copies of parts of or the whole Article made under any of the Author Rights, shall include the appropriate bibliographic citation and notice of the RESM copyright.

Note: Please sign both pages (including the previous one). At least Corresponding Author must sign the agreement. Please state appropriate titles when signing the agreement as author or any other copyright holder. And fill the form with handwriting.
